

HOLY CROSS

Holy Cross High School
2620 Francis Lewis Blvd.,
Flushing, New York

Holy Cross, 1972-1973

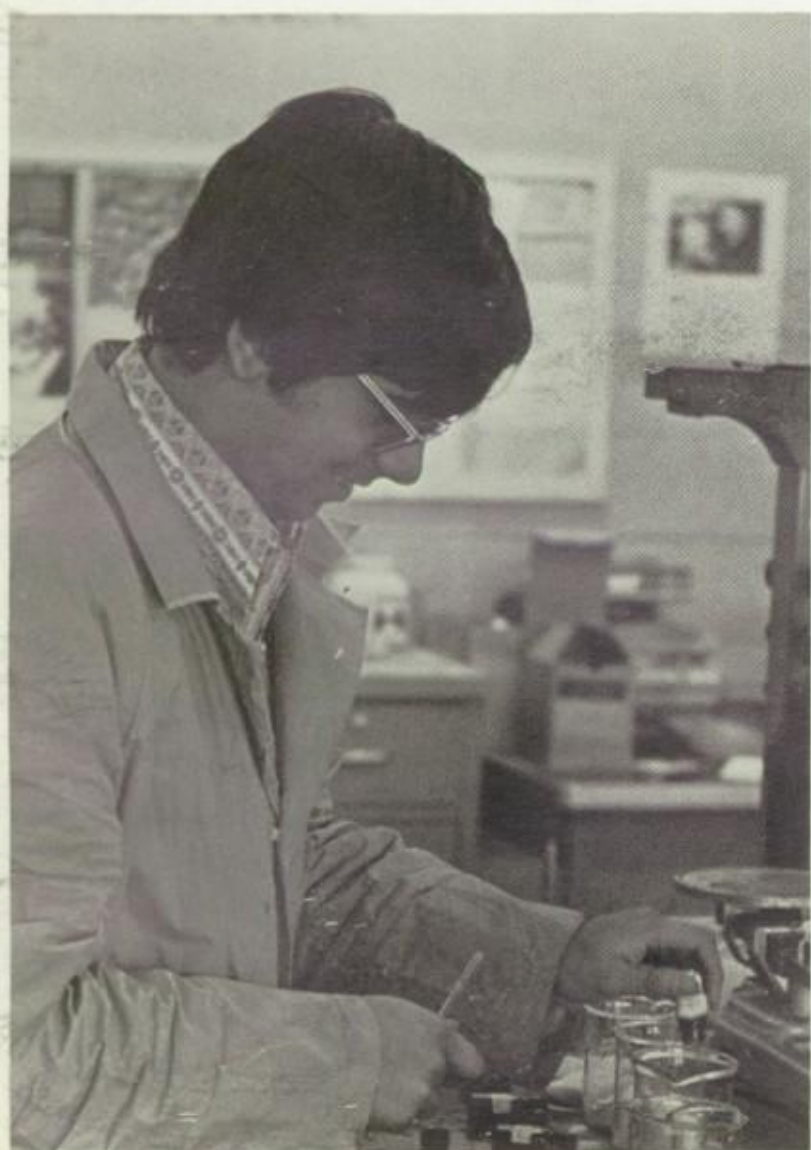

We seniors have finally reached "one" of the milestones in our lives — Graduation. Technically speaking, we have met the challenges of high school, and we are about to continue preparing for our careers, or enter into different avenues right away.

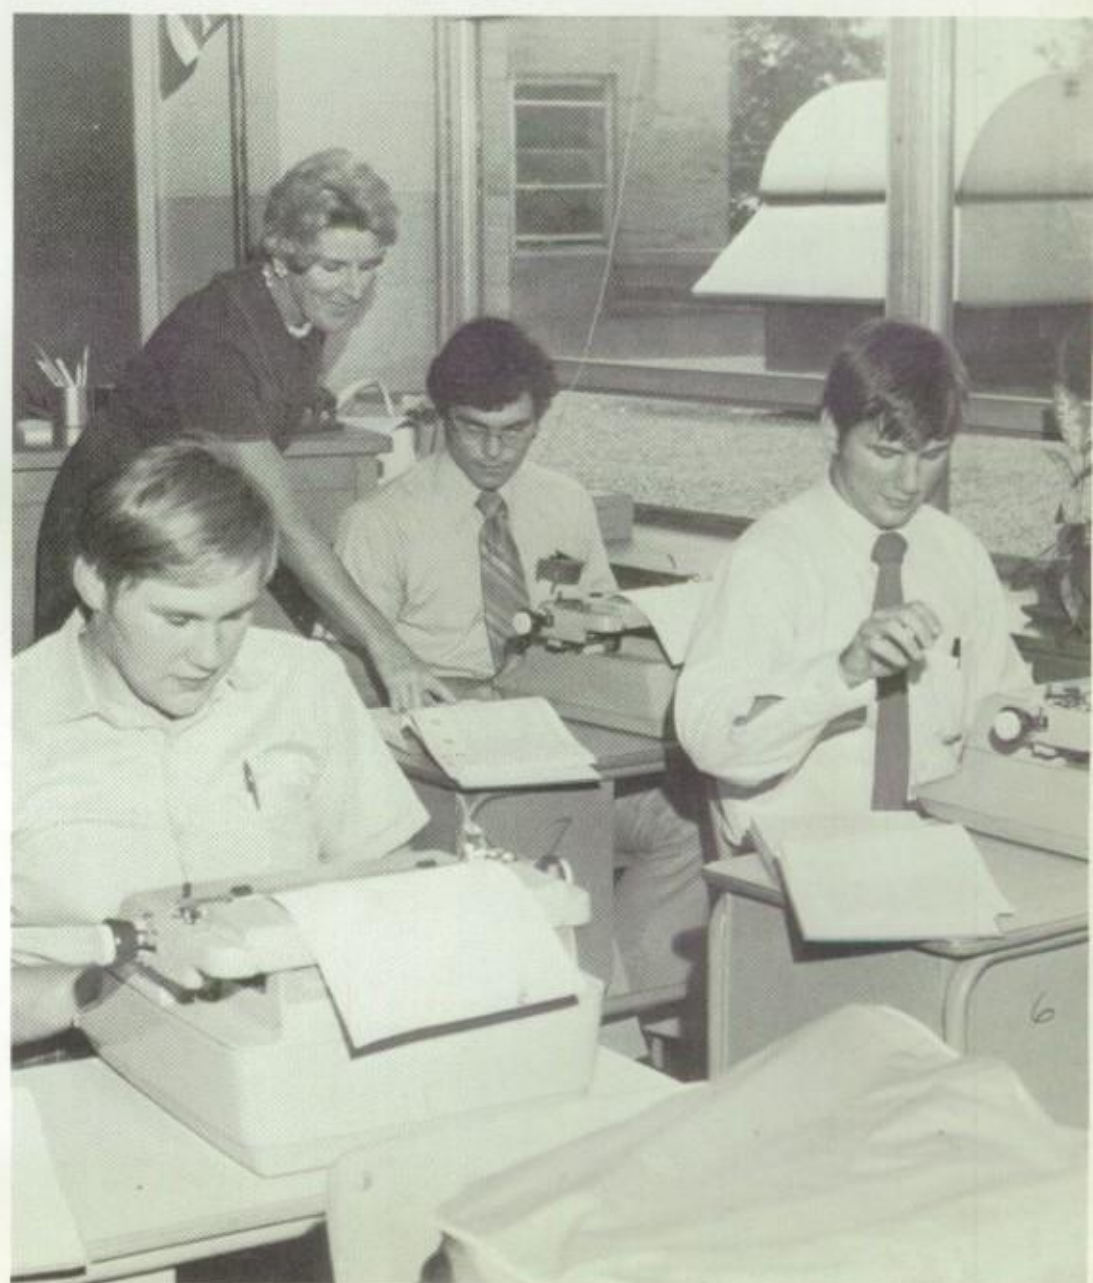

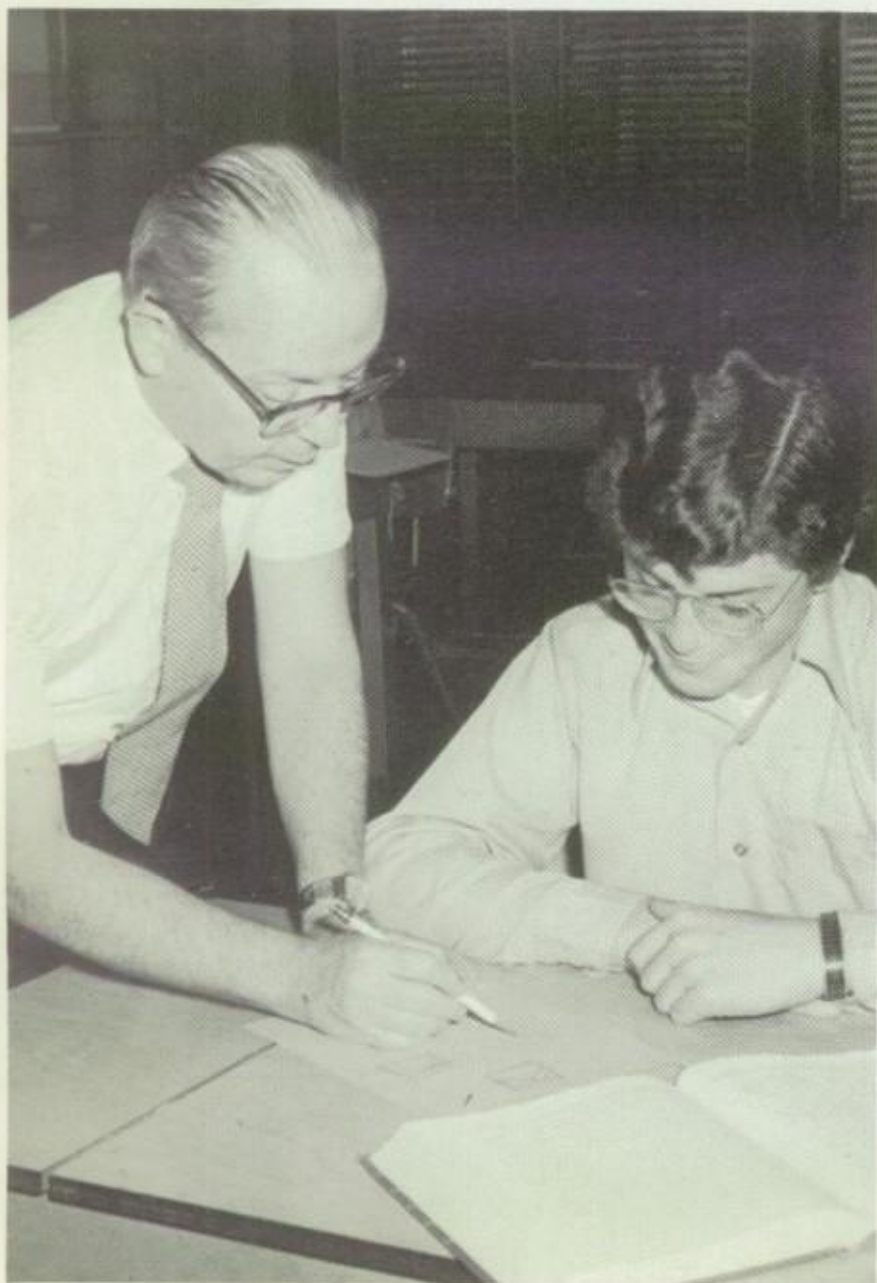

Needless to say, we are leaving at a time of great controversy: war, dissension, prejudice, and the like, are a constant threat to our civilization. However, we feel confident that the years at Holy Cross have prepared us to at least face these problems with a sense of reality, and an awareness of their existence. We have experienced the changes from adolescence to manhood at Holy Cross; and many of us have been endowed with the basic principle that "the worth of the state is measured by the worth of the individuals that comprise it."

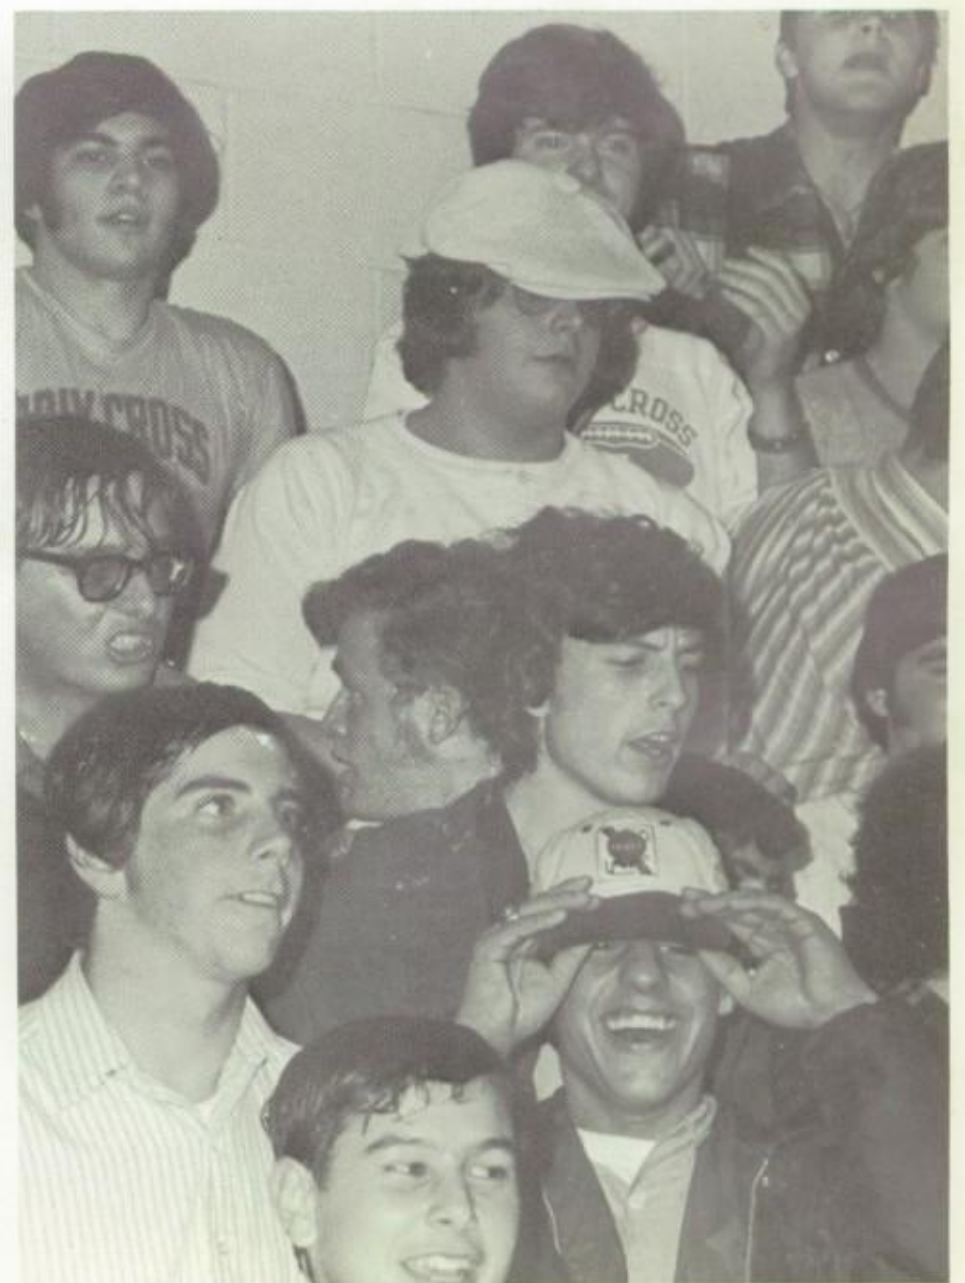

As each of us look back at any of our hopes and accomplishments, whether fully realized or not, we extend our appreciation to a concerned faculty, administration, and, of course, our parents, for helping prepare us to accept the demands that lie ahead.

In closing, the Class of '73, while expressing its gratitude, wants to leave a legacy of our experiences at Holy Cross: the conviction that there are extraordinary possibilities from ordinary people and we did, during the years, especially 1972-73, work toward "unity" among ourselves within the setting of Holy Cross High School. Don't forget us. We pray with you! God Bless!

IN MEMORIAM

Thomas DelMore

Those who are dead are never gone;
they are there in the thickening shadow.
The dead are not under the earth;
they are in the tree that rustless,
they are in the wood that groans,
they are in the water that runs,
they are in the homes; they are in the crowds;
the dead are not dead.

Those who are dead are never gone;
they are in the breast of the women,
they are in the child who is wailing and in the firebrand that flames.

The dead are not under the earth;
they are in the fire that is dying,
they are in the grasses that weep,
they are in the whimpering rocks,
they are in the forests, they are in the house;
the dead are not dead.

Holy Cross

The unity of Holy Cross students is never so strongly felt as when they are showing publicly their love for God and Christian values. Holy Cross affords its students many opportunities for spiritual growth. At First Friday Mass, offered at the beginning of each month, so all may attend, Entrance and Offertory processions of students promote the spirit of participation. Amid the activity of school life, students look forward, once a year, to a quiet weekend retreat at Shelter Island. Conferences, Mass and confession are carefully scheduled by Holy Cross spiritual director, Father Kopinski, are times for taking stock of spiritual progress.

Spiritual Life

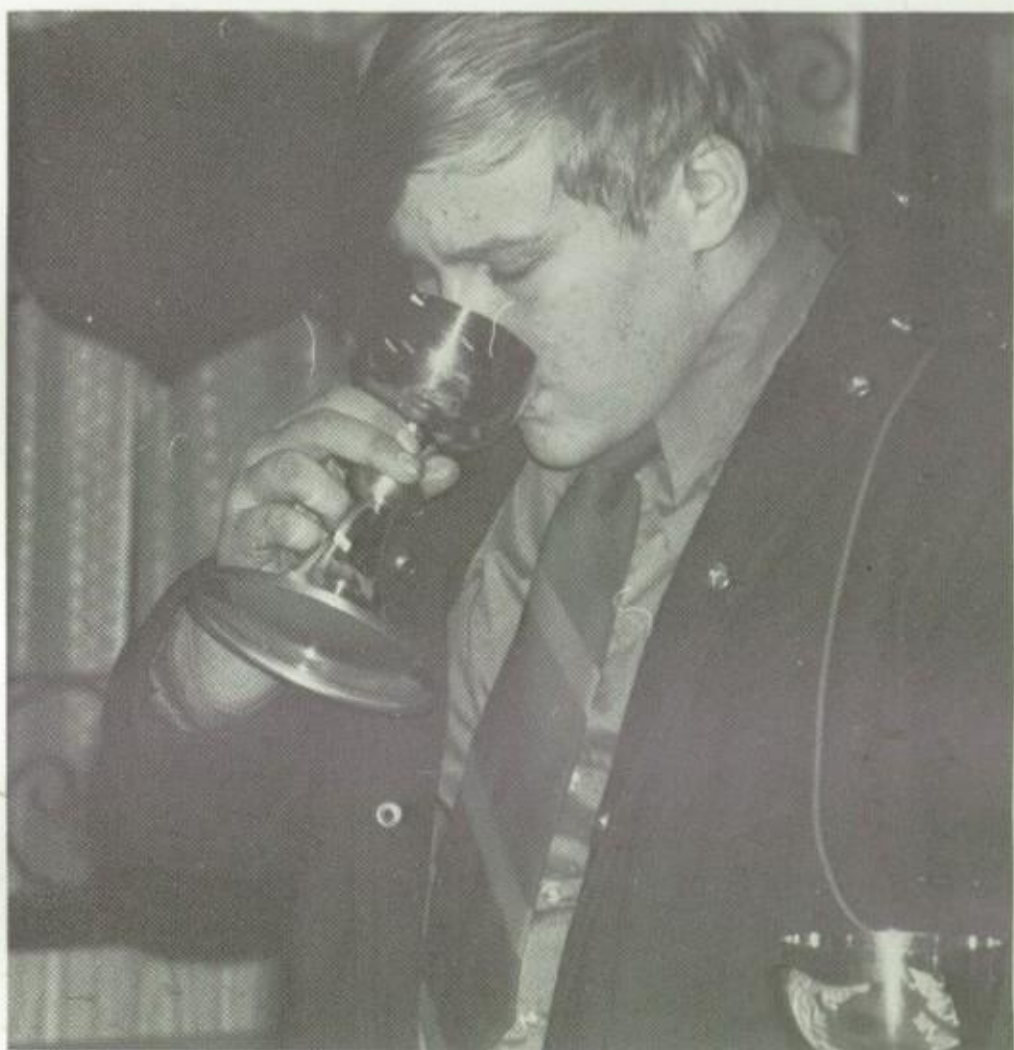

Shelter Island Retreat

Each year the students of Holy Cross are encouraged with the enthusiasm to put aside a few days away from school and everyday life to participate in a vital spiritual experience that is most effective for their young life in the teenage world. Under the dynamic direction of Brother Robert Brown C.S.C., Shelter Island has become a landmark on the map of Long Island for the Holy Cross student. It is here that students experience Christ in many ways and they come back from Shelter Island to share the Light of Christ with their friends, family and the world that is all part of their daily activities.

This year over 500 Holy Cross men have come back from Shelter Island with such joy of spirit, peace of mind and enthusiasm for the things that Christ has given them that hundreds of students have taken up the challenge to make this retreat on their words alone.

All the hang-ups and problems that are a part of life — especially the teenage life in particular are dealt with the Passionist Fathers at Shelter Island. It is an experience and a great challenge to set aside a weekend of your own to look into the higher things in life, to see the real meaning in life and to help learn about yourself, and to put all things in good order and for some to start a new leaf on life. Everyone is looking for success and happiness, and a closed retreat, if it does nothing else, it will increase one's happiness. As the saying goes, "God helps those who help themselves;" this is the key to the success of a Shelter Island Retreat; what you put into it is what you will get out of the three days there.

We are all aware of the academic standing that Holy Cross offers, but it's good for seniors to sit back and realize the tremendous spiritual opportunities that Holy Cross provides for them to help live a special way for Christ.

The '73 Cross:

The fifteenth annual CROSS has been presented to the student body through the diligent effort on the part of the editors; Domenick Tarantino and Halbert Cittar. Also the moderator, Brother Robert Brown C.S.C., who supervised this hard working crew. With a great sense of accomplishment we trust you will enjoy this volume.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS:

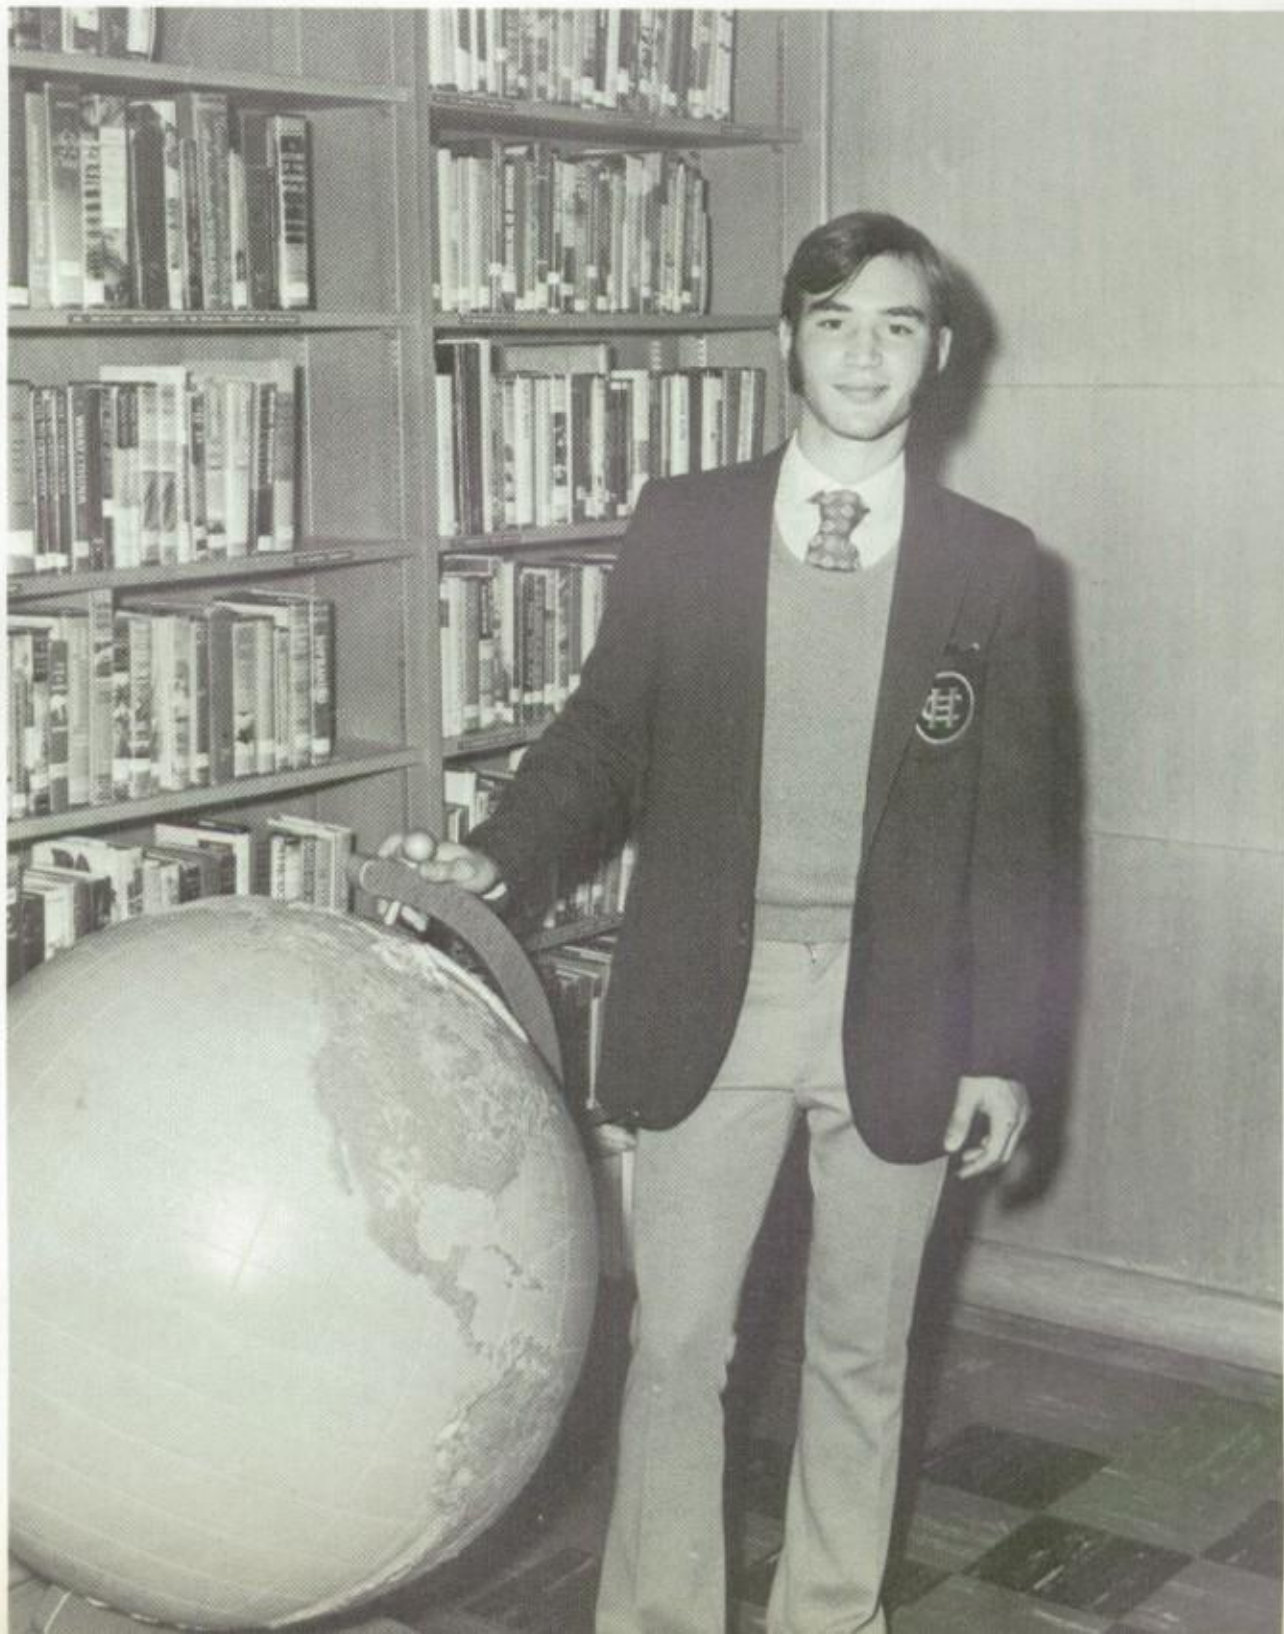

First, we would like to give special thanks to Brother Joseph McDonnell, C.S.C. and the HOLY CROSS PHOTO CLUB especially to Bart Giusto, Photo Editor and Ronald Bielinski who devoted many strenuous hours after school to develop and print many pictures for the yearbook deadline. Without this fine craftsmanship a fine yearbook is difficult. Also we would like to thank Mr. Norman Kerker of DELMA STUDIOS.

The book's artwork was done by Mr. Frank C. Jahn, a commercial artist, a personal friend of Brother Robert Brown and a devoted man to all the ideals of Holy Cross High School.

Also gratitude is given to Ronald Valdner, Raymond Gallagher, John Weinlich, John O'Connor, Scott Flieger, Michael Burduck, Shawn Brosnan, Joseph Salerno, Thomas McGinley and Arthur DeGennaro who helped on yearbook day and who also helped in the identification of pictures.

The publisher of the 1973 CROSS was the Hunter Publishing Company. A very special thanks to Mr. William T. O'Connor, a representative of the company, for his expert assistance in the production of this year's yearbook.

Editor's Message

As our senior year comes to an end at Holy Cross, we are going to face many problems, as previously mentioned by the senior class, whether it be in college, at work, or even in the minutia of our everyday lives. Our problems could be "accepted" if each of us when going his own way, spreads a sense of faith, brotherhood, and genuine friendliness among ourselves, as a variety of these talents and abilities are among the membership of the class of '73.

As a member of this senior class, I feel privileged in the fact that we, as a class, accomplished a great deal together during our years at Holy Cross. Not only has most of the faculty enlightened us with many ideas, but the class of '73 has communicated an atmosphere of democracy and openness about the school. Just what the effects will be, "only time will tell."

I think the class of '73 will always remember with me, a fellow classmate, Thomas Delmore, whose death saddened, but ironically touched each of us to strive for a "day to day" awareness. In his own way, Tom attributed then and even now, to the ideals of the class. Hopefully, he will always be remembered.

In years to come, as each of us within the class of '73 looks back to the administration, entire faculty and impressive intellectual and social activities at Holy Cross, may we feel a sense of pride and gratitude for much which might be considered immeasurable yet impressive as we fulfill "the days of our lives."

God Bless each of us always — and in all ways!!

Sincerely,

Domenick Tarantino

The Holy Cross Forensic Society, once again under the direction of Brother Thomas Durney, C.S.C. has proved to be an energetic group of students who spend long hours after school in empty classrooms practicing for tournaments which are conducted under the auspices of The Catholic Forensic League of Brooklyn-Queens.

As a result of their excellent showing at these numerous tournaments, the Society's members have won many individual and team trophies. This year two members of the team — Junior Kevin Brady and Freshman John Cocchiarro — qualified for the National competition in Chicago where they represented the Catholic Forensic League.

The members of the Forensic Society also represent the school in local contests such as the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars contests, and in invitational tournaments hosted by local Colleges and Universities.

The motto for the Forensic Society is "Christian Leadership Through Speech" which has been carried out and is being demonstrated by both present and past members.
